A Registration Fee of £50 must accompany all applications, except social, which will be deducted from the entry fee when applicants are invited to join the Club. Applicants will receive an invitation to an interview after which membership may be offered. The timing will depend on the applicant's position on the waiting list. In the event that the applicant formally withdraws from the waiting list for any reason prior to receiving that invitation, the registration fee will be returned; however, if applicants withdraw having received an invitation to an interview, the registration fee will be retained.
